

SUPERVISOR'S REVIEW OF FINAL THESIS

Academic year:

|                              |  |
|------------------------------|--|
| Title of the thesis:         |  |
| Author of the thesis:        |  |
| Study programme:             |  |
| Supervisor of the thesis:    |  |
| Workplace of the supervisor: |  |

| Evaluation criteria  |   | Maximum points (100) | Assigned points |
|--|---|----------------------|-----------------|
| Meeting the objectives and tasks set by the methodology, in creative work, inventiveness and skill in the design of thesis  | 8 – 10 pointsfull fulfilment of objectives and excellent management of the tasks set by the methodology  | 10            |                 |
|  | 4 – 7 pointsaverage achievement of objectives and satisfactory management of the tasks set by the methodology  |                      |                 |
|  | 0 – 3 pointsbelow-average achievement of objectives and below-average management of tasks defined by the methodology   |                      |                 |
| Literature processing, topicality and adequacy of literary sources: clarity and logical breakdown, relevance in relation to the topic and goal of the work, correctness and accuracy of citation and listing of bibliographic references according to the current standard (STN ISO 690), proportionality of the use of resources of domestic and foreign scientific literature, timeliness. High quality literary sources are considered to be scientific papers published most frequently in journals or works registered in WoS and Scopus databases | 16 – 20 pointsat an excellent level – the condition for the above-mentioned number of points is that the author formally quoted in a correct, clear and precise manner all the used sources, out of which at least 30% represent relevant and high-quality domestic and foreign sources from the last 5 to 10 years (time definition depends on the topic of work) | 20            |                 |
|  | 11 – 15 pointsat a very good level – the condition for the above-mentioned number of points is that the author formally quoted in a correct, clear and precise manner all the used sources, out of which at least 30% represent adequate domestic and foreign sources from the last 5 or 10 years (time definition depends on the topic of work)                   |                      |                 |
|  | 6 – 10 pointsat a good level – the author quoted used sources with minor formal errors, out of which less than 30% are of adequate domestic and foreign sources from the last 5 or 10 years (time definition depends on the topic of work)   |                      |                 |
|  | 0 – 5 pointsbelow-average level – author quoted insufficient number of literary sources and are of low-quality   |                      |                 |
| Methodology and material: ability to link methodology to set goals, skill in experimental and creative processes  | 8 – 10 pointsat an excellent level   | 10            |                 |
|  | 4 – 7 pointsat an average level  |                      |                 |
|  | 0 – 3 pointsbelow-average level  |                      |                 |

| Evaluation criteria   |  | Maximum points (100) | Assigned points |
|---|--|----------------------|-----------------|
| Results and conclusions: formulation, clarity, relevance in relation to objectives, benefits and usefulness for practice or further development of knowledge   | 14 – 20 pointsat an excellent level | 20            |                 |
|   | 7 – 13 pointsat an average level    |                      |                 |
|   | 0 – 6 pointsbelow-average level     |                      |                 |
| Formal processing of the final work: compliance with the structure of work, evaluation of the proportionality of individual parts of the work, precision of work processing, language and technical processing of the text, correctness of professional terminology, appropriateness of the processing of numerical results into tables and graphs, level of graphic processing, overall level of final work in formal terms | 11 – 15 pointsat an excellent level | 15            |                 |
|   | 6 – 10 pointsat an average level    |                      |                 |
|   | 0 – 5 pointsbelow-average level     |                      |                 |
| Student's approach to solving the final thesis: student activity, cooperation with the thesis supervisor, ability to work independently, following the directions of the thesis supervisor   | 19 – 25 pointsat an excellent level | 25            |                 |
|   | 13 – 18 pointsat a very good level  |                      |                 |
|   | 7 – 12 pointsat a good level        |                      |                 |
|   | 0 – 6 pointsbelow-average level     |                      |                 |
| Total points (maximum number of points is 100)   |  |                      |                 |
| Classification   |  |                      |                 |
| The resulting classification: A(1) excellent (93 – 100 points), B (1,5) very good (86 – 92 points), C (2) good (79 – 85 points), D (2,5) satisfactory (72 – 78 points), E (3) sufficient (64 – 71 points), FX (4) fail ( $\leq 63$ points)  |  |                      |                 |
| Recommendation of the final defence of the thesis in front of the National Final Exam Commission   |  |                      |                 |
| Protocol on the control of originality (percentage of the text having an overlap with the work index of the CRZP corpus)   |  |                      |                 |
| Originality of the final work  |  |                      |                 |
| Substantive and formal comments on the work  |  |                      |                 |

.....
date

.....
signature